Responding to Complaints

We will try to resolve the complaint as quickly as possible, and with the minimum of inconvenience to you. If we are unable to resolve your complaint immediately we will promptly send an acknowledgement of your complaint in writing. The acknowledgement will confirm who will handle your complaint and how you can contact them.

We will endeavour to keep you informed of the progress of the measures being taken in order to resolve your complaint.

At the end of 8 weeks we will endeavour to provide you with a final response, this will provide you with a decision regarding your complaint and where appropriate, may offer redress or remedial action. In the event that we are not yet able to resolve your complaint we will send you a written update explaining why we are not yet in a position to resolve the complaint, and when we expect to resolve your complaint.

We will also advise you of your rights to refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service and enclose a copy of the Financial Ombudsman Service standard explanatory leaflet.

Financial Ombudsman Service

The Financial Ombudsman Service (www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk) helps to settle individual disputes between consumers and financial firms when they are not able to come to satisfactory solution themselves. It is a completely independent service, which is free of charge to consumers.

We are obliged to inform you, at the time of sending our final response, or where we have failed to resolve your complaint within eight weeks since your complaint was received, of your right to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service if you remain dissatisfied with the way your complaint was handled. Your complaint must be referred to the Ombudsman within six months of receiving our 'final response'.
